FORMULA 1 GRAN PREMIO DE MÉXICO 2018™ ANNOUNCES PARTNERSHIP WITH MOVEMBER FOUNDATION

- Fans of the FORMULA 1 GRAN PREMIO DE MÉXICO™ prepare to celebrate the moustache

The award-winning organising body of the FORMULA 1 GRAN PREMIO DE MÉXICO 2018™ is delighted to announce a partnership with the Movember Foundation, the global men's health organization, which engages men to grow moustaches all over the world in the month of November, raising funds and awareness for important causes: prostate cancer, testicular cancer, men's mental health and suicide prevention.

This year's Grand Prix will be used to launch the annual Movember campaign, with the shared partnership goal of harnessing Formula One's global reach to raise awareness, and to have fun doing good.

The Mexican Grand Prix is proud to do things differently and present a new way to promote Formula 1. The annual Movember campaign is recognised for its light-hearted, disruptive approach to fundraising for causes that affect men globally. Together their partnership will inspire the sport and all its fans worldwide to think and act differently, contributing to the Movember Foundation's drive to help men live happier, healthier and longer lives.

The moustache is an iconic element of Mexican culture, featuring in everything from the fight for justice and democracy in the Mexican Revolution, to the passion of the Mariachi music and the courage of the traditional charro. As part of the partnership there will be a specially designed Movember and Mexico iconic moustache logo made of chillies in national colours.

In the build-up to the Grand Prix, there will be plenty of activity celebrating the moustache, ahead of the annual shave down for the month of November. The Grand Prix's goal is to further its close rapport with the fans and engage new audiences, and this year's event will be no exception, with some exciting surprises along the way.

Alejandro Soberon Kuri, President & CEO of Grupo CIE and the FORMULA 1 GRAN PREMIO DE MÉXICO™ said "We are proud to be working with the Movember Foundation to raise awareness for such an important cause that impacts not only men, but the females in their lives too. Formula 1's global reach provides a perfect platform for all of us to make a lasting difference. Once again, we are aiming to do things differently, hosting a unique show for our fans and demonstrating that there is no F1@ESTA like a Mexican F1@ESTA."

JC, co-founder of the Movember Foundation added, "Moustaches and Mexico go hand in hand. We are excited to partner with the Mexican Grand Prix. The history of the sport has seen some great drivers with moustaches, from Nigel Mansell to Keke Rosberg, and over the years we've been lucky enough to have some amazing support from the F1 community. I'm looking forward to seeing some of the team crew and drivers in the barber's chair and rocking a moustache for race weekend in Mexico."
